

Why does it matter where our food comes from?

Key objective- To understand what agriculture is, what happens on a farm and from where common foods originate.

Important maps I will refer to Climate regions of the world

The United Kingdom

Important places I will visit

Costa Rica

Devon, The United Kingdom

Important things I will know, understand and do

What a farm is and what happens on a dairy farm
How milk is used as a raw material of dairy products

The physical and human features of the rural and urban landscapes of Devon in the UK

Why the weather in Devon makes it an ideal place for dairy farming

How weather conditions in Devon compare with those of the UK as a whole

The three main types of farms found in the UK

What trade is and what importing and exporting means

The most popular fruits consumed in the UK and where in the world they are produced

The stages of growing bananas and exporting them to the UK

How sugar is refined from sugar beet

Some of the benefits of buying food locally

The different meat produced by animals in Britain

What 'free range' means

Important geographical concepts I will understand

Physical feature	natural things that would be present even if there were no people
Human feature	things that have been constructed by people
Environment	the particular physical and human features which make places distinctive
Country	a nation with its own government and territory
Weather	what's happening in the atmosphere at a given time e.g., sunshine, wind, rain
Urban	a built up area such as a city with a high population density
Rural	areas of countryside outside of towns and cities
Landscape	everything that can be seen when looking at a particular place
Agriculture	growing crops and rearing animals on farms
Trade	buying or selling goods and services between people and countries
Economic activity	making a product or providing something that others pay for
Settlement	any place where people live such as a village or city

Important food products I will investigate

Sugar beet

Free range chickens

Bananas

Cow's milk